Being special: where do we belong? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Retell religious stories making connections with personal experiences. Share and record occasions when things have happened in their lives that made them feel special. Recall simply what happens at a traditional Christian infant baptism and dedication. Recall simply what happens when a baby is welcomed into a religion other than Christianity. 	Why is the word 'God' so important to Christians? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Talk about things they find interesting, puzzling or wonderful and also about their own experiences and feelings about the world. Retell stories, talking about what they say about the world, God, human beings. Think about the wonders of the natural world, expressing ideas and feelings. Say how and when Christians like to thank their Creator. Talk about what people do to mess up the world and what they do to look after it. 	What places are special and why? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Talk about somewhere that is special to themselves, saying why. Recognise that some religious people have places which have special meaning for them. Talk about the things that are special and valued in a place of worship. Begin to recognise that for Christians, Muslims or Jews, these special things link to beliefs about God. Get to know and use appropriate words to talk about their thoughts and feelings when visiting a church. Express a personal response to the natural world.
Why is Christmas special for Christians? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Talk about people who are special to them. Say what makes their family and friends special to them. Recall simply what happens at a traditional Christian festival (Christmas) Begin to recognise the word 'incarnation' as describing the belief that God came to Earth as Jesus. Retell religious stories, making connections with personal experiences. 	Why is Easter special to Christians? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Recognise and retell stories connected with celebration of Easter. Say why Easter is a special time for Christians. Talk about ideas of new life in nature. Recognise some symbols Christians use during Holy Week, e.g. palm leaves, cross, eggs, etc., and make connections with signs of new life in nature. Talk about some ways Christians remember these stories at Easter. 	What times/stories are special and why? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Talk about some religious stories. Recognise some religious words, e.g. about God. Identify some of their own feelings in the stories they hear. Identify a sacred text e.g. Bible, Torah. Talk about some of the things these stories teach believers (for example, what Jesus teaches about being friends with the friendless in the story of Zacchaeus; what Jesus' story about the ten lepers teaches about saying 'thank you', and why it is good to thank and be thanked; what the Chanukah story teaches Jews about standing up for what is right), etc.

What does it mean to belong to a faith community?

Make sense of beliefs:

- Recognise that loving others is important in lots of communities.
- Say simply what Jesus and one other religious leader taught about loving other people.

Understand the impact:

- Give an account of what happens at a traditional Christian and Jewish or Muslim welcome ceremony, and suggest what the actions and symbols mean.
- Identify at least two ways people show they love each other and belong to each other when they get married (Christian and/or Jewish and non-religious)

Make connections:

- Give examples of ways in which people express their identity and belonging within faith communities and other communities, responding sensitively to differences.
- Talk about what they think is good about being in a community, for people in faith communities and for themselves, giving a good reason for their ideas.

Who is Jewish and how do they live?

Make sense of belief:

- Recognise the words of the Shema as a Jewish prayer.
- Retell simply some stories used in Jewish celebrations (e.g. Chanukah)
- Give examples of how the stories used in celebrations (e.g. Shabbat, Chanukah) remind Jews about what God is like.

Understand the impact:

- Give examples of how Jewish people celebrate special times (e.g. Shabbat, Sukkot, Chanukah)
- Make links between Jewish ideas of God found in the stories and how people live.
- Give an example of how some Jewish people might remember God in different ways (e.g. mezuzah, on Shabbat)

Who do Christians say made the world?

Make sense of belief:

- Retell the story of creation from Genesis 1:1–2:3 simply.
- Recognise that 'Creation' is the beginning of the 'big story' of the Bible.
- Say what the story tells Christians about God, Creation and the world.

Understand the impact:

- Give at least one example of what Christians do to say 'thank you' to God for Creation.

Make connections:

- Think, talk and ask questions about living in an amazing world.
- Give a reason for the ideas they have and the connections they make between the Jewish/Christian Creation story and the world they live in.

What do Christians believe God is like?

Make sense of belief:

- Identify what a parable is.
- Tell the story of the Lost Son from the Bible simply and recognise a link with the Christian idea of God as a forgiving Father.
- Give clear, simple accounts of what the story means to Christians

Understand the impact:

- Give at least two examples of a way in which Christians show their belief in God as loving and forgiving (e.g. by saying sorry, by seeing God as welcoming them back; by forgiving others)
- Give an example of how Christians put their beliefs into practice in worship (e.g. by saying sorry to God)

Make connections:

Who is Jewish and how do they live?

Make connections:

- Talk about what they think is good about reflecting, thanking, praising and remembering for Jewish people, giving a good reason for their ideas.
- Give a good reason for their ideas about whether reflecting, thanking, praising and remembering have something to say to them too.

How should we care for one world and for others, and why does it matter? (C, J, NR)

Make sense of belief:

- Identify a story or text that says something about each person being unique and valuable.
- Give an example of a key belief some people find in one of these stories (e.g. that God loves all people)
- Give a clear, simple account of what Genesis 1 tells Christians and Jews about the natural world.

Understand the impact:

- Give an example of how people show that they care for others (e.g. by giving to charity), making a link to one of the stories.
- Give examples of how Christians and Jews can show care for the natural earth.
